FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADA Evaluation Open for Public Comment

The Nebraska Department of Roads (NDOR) has completed an Americans with Disabilities (ADA) Self-Evaluation. During this process, NDOR evaluated its current services, policies and practices, and the effects thereof, as they relate to the requirements of the ADA. This self-evaluation is a comprehensive report that outlines NDOR's methods to overcome the barriers to programs, services and activities for people with disabilities as they seek to use those services and programs.

This self-evaluation includes an overview of policies and practices, a process for requesting modification or accommodations, an overview of the NDOR Transition Plan and communication efforts.

The document is available for public comment on the NDOR website at www.roads.nebraska.gov/humanres/ada/ from May 12, 2011 through close of business May 25, 2011. Public comments may be submitted on-line via the website above, or by calling or emailing Carrie Williams, NDOR Human Resources at (402) 479-4870 or carrie.williams@nebraska.gov. Comments will be accepted on the NDOR ADA Self-Evaluation, as well as any NDOR-related ADA programs or services/activities that may not have been included within the document that may need to be reviewed or evaluated. If a paper copy is needed, one may be obtained upon request to the Communication Office, 1500 Highway 2, P.O. Box 94759, Lincoln, NE 68509-4759, or by calling (402) 479-4512, or by email at maryjo.oie@nebraska.gov.
